

Institute of Integrated Learning in Management / Morphogenesis

The project is a student-housing complex within the existing educational campus of the Institute for Integrated Learning in Management in Greater Noida. The campus takes inspiration from the urban structure of court, cluster and street living of Shahjahanabad, the old settlement of Delhi. The aim was to create an architecture that would be a socio cultural setting for fostering cross pollination of ideologies in young minds.

Click here to read more.