

Creating architectural excellence by designing sustainable forms & spaces

Coming from a family of architects, drawings and models are what Sonali saw ever since she was a child. Her parents worked out of home for the early part of her childhood and hence she literally grew up among architects. Add to it - a serious interest in reading, model making as well as observing buildings when travelling - all put together incited her interest in architecture, supporting why Sonali Rastogi defined her choice to be an architect.

A Graduate from the School of Planning and Architecture (New Delhi) and The Architectural Association (London) with a graduate diploma in Housing and Urbanism and a second graduate diploma in Graduate Design, Sonali Rastogi is Founder Partner of Morphogenesis. Morphogenesis is one of India's leading award-winning Architecture and Urban Design practices with offices in New Delhi and Bengaluru, India. Their approach to creativity is inspired by the evolutionary processes in nature and their belief in sustainability shapes all their projects and forms the consistent theme in their designs.
