FEATURING 100 SPECTACULAR PROJECTS

DELHI ART GALLERY

Historic Revival

A century-old dilapidated building in Kala Ghoda – a lively and historic precinct in Mumbai – is now home to the four-level Delhi Art Gallery. The architectural firm, Morphogenesis, has achieved the right balance between reinstating the heritage value of the historic building and contemporary usage by choosing the adaptive reuse method in restoration. The gallery showcases artworks on the ground and first floors, while the other two levels host its permanent collection, a sculpture courtyard-cum-auditorium, private lounges and gallery offices. Once unrecognisable, the building is now hard to miss. ■
