

archello

The design for the campus of IILM, Noida takes inspiration from the urban structure of court, cluster and street living of Shahjahanabad, the old settlement of Delhi. The aim was to create an architecture that would be a socio cultural setting for fostering cross pollination of ideologies in young minds.

Click here to read more.