Our Practice

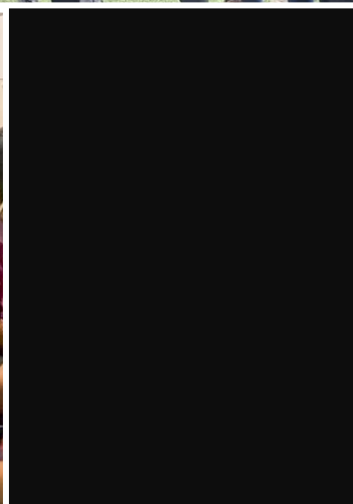

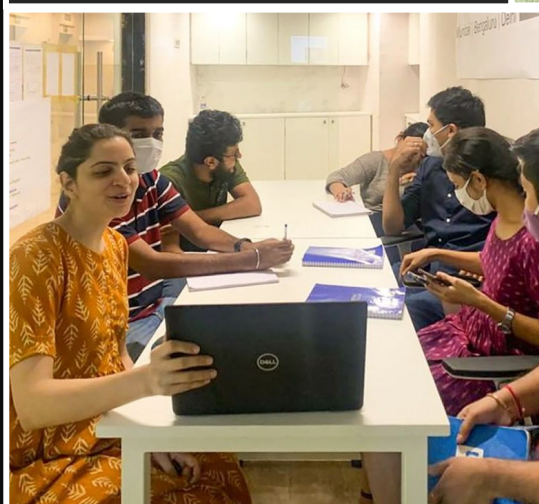

We collaborate with our clients to design experiences.

Morphogenesis' substantial body of work is essentially a balancing act between India's rich architectural heritage and its modern aspirations. Over the last 26 years, the firm has developed and fine-tuned its unique architectural language that is authentically Indian, yet contemporary. While being focused on environmental, cultural, and socio-economic sustainability, our work constantly references traditions and techniques from the past.

A Living, Thriving Ecosystem.

Morphogenesis is its people. For us, Architecture is not a profession, it's a way of life.
